

GAS METERMAN-A

A. Duties:

Under directive supervision, principally in the shop, but at times in the field, does work of a grade requiring a major degree of skill, in connection with the maintenance and repair of gas meters, regulator-meters, and domestic regulators; performing duties, such as:

1. Performing any or all of the duties of Gas Meterman-B;
2. Inspecting, testing, checking, adjusting and repairing all domestic meters;
3. Making final tests, adjustments to and proving on all types and sizes of timed meters and hard case meters up to a nominal rated capacity of 1500 cubic feet per hour;
4. Making repairs and any adjustments on combination regulator-meters;
5. Repairing domestic regulators;
6. Learning by assisting employees of higher classification;
7. Reporting replacement parts needed for domestic meters; and
8. Performing other similar or less skilled work.

B. Qualifications:

Must meet the Company's requirements as to GENERAL QUALIFICATIONS; must have all the qualifications of a Gas Meterman-B and, in addition:

1. Must have had at least two years' experience as such, or the equivalent; must have passed examination for entrance into grade of Gas Meterman-A;
2. Must have acquired a thorough knowledge of the principles of Gas Meter Shop practices and standards involving the complete repair and assembly of all types and sizes of domestic meters;
3. Should have completed course in Natural Gas Operations, or the equivalent; and
4. Must be familiar with the Company's safety rules and their application.