

SENIOR GAS METERMAN

A. Duties:

Under directive supervision and occasionally under general supervision, in the shop or in the field, does work of a grade requiring a major degree of skill, in connection with the maintenance and repair of domestic regulators, regulator-meters and commercial and industrial gas meters; performing duties such as:

1. Performing any or all the duties of Gas Meterman-A;
2. Inspecting, testing, checking, adjusting and repairing all types and sizes of commercial and industrial meters;
3. Making in-tests, adjustments to and final proving on, all types and sizes of commercial and industrial meters;
4. Making arrangements with the customer when tests are being made on the customer's premises;
5. Inspecting installation for evidence of diversion and other irregularities, reporting same to his supervisor;
6. Making special tests and investigations, as directed;
7. Reporting replacement parts needed for commercial and industrial meters; and
8. Performing other similar or less skilled work.

B. Qualifications:

Must meet the Company's requirements as to GENERAL QUALIFICATIONS; must have all the qualifications of a Gas Meterman-A and, in addition:

1. Must have had at least two years' experience as such, or the equivalent; must have passed examination for entrance into grade of Senior Gas Meterman;
2. Must have acquired a thorough knowledge of the principles of Gas Meter Shop practices and standards involving the complete repair and assembly of all types and sizes of commercial and industrial meter repair; and
3. Must be familiar with the Company's safety rules and their application, in the shop and on the customers' premises.